<Scheduled activities besides Japanese classes>

Monday, Feb. 7: Online opening ceremony, placement test and then classes commence.

3rd period: Welcome party. Please prepare your own drink (soft drink only).

Tuesday, Feb. 8: Activities with SGU students. It will be self-introduction, Q&A and games and so on.

Thursday, Feb. 10: If the situation allows we expect to show you live movies of on-going Sapporo Snow Festival. However, we might cancel the live report depending on the COVID situation or weather; in that case we will show you photos from the past programs.

Friday, Feb. 11: SGU students' presentation about traditional Japanese culture and latest animation and music. Free discussion follows.

Monday, Feb. 14: SGU students will introduce you famous sightseeing spots in Hokkaido. They might tell you about hidden good spots to visit.

Tuesday, Feb. 15: The second communication activity with Japanese students. They will make plans to do together.

Thursday, Feb. 17: It also depends on the weather or COVID situation but we expect to send you live report from the center of the city of Sapporo and show you around.

On the final day there will be one hour of Japanese classes and then certification ceremony will follow. Printed certificate will be sent to you via post mail.
